Step 1: Make the fondant dinos for the Dinosaur Cake

Make several pieces of white fondant and knead these together with the colouring gels, so you can make pieces of fondant in different colours of green, a piece of yellow and a piece of orange. Make the dinosaurs for the cake with these pieces by using the different dino moulds from Katy Sue. Look at the example on the cake to choose the colours for each dinosaur.

Give the dinosaurs some extra colour with some gold paint and a thin brush. With the green colour powder you give them some depth and for the pupils you can use the black food art pen. Stick the skewers behind the dinosaurs with some royal icing. Note: Ideally you make the dinosaurs a few days in advance so that they can dry well.

Knead the pieces of green fondant that you have left together so that you get a marble effect, roll it out thinly and cut out leaves of your choice with the tropical leaf cutter. Crumple some kitchen paper and let the leaves dry on it. Note: Ideally you make this just like the dinosaurs a few days in advance.

Step 2: Get started with the basis of the Dinosaur Cake

Preheat the oven to 180°C (convection oven 160°C) and grease the cake pan with the bake release spray. Prepare the mix for sponge cake by mixing 250g of the mix with 4 eggs and 25ml of water. Mix on low speed for 2-3 minutes and then on high speed for another 7-8 minutes. Then fold the mix into the cake pan and bake the sponge cake for about 30-35 minutes. After baking, put the cake on a cooling grid and let cool completely.

Step 3: Fill and cover the Dinosaur Cake

Make the Enchanted Cream® by mixing 150g of the mix with 200ml of milk and mix on high speed for 3 minutes. Then season with the pineapple flavour paste.

Cut the cooled sponge cake twice with the cake leveler and fill and spread all over with white Enchanted Cream®. When you're done with this, let the cake set in the fridge for half an hour.

Divide the remaining Enchanted Cream® into 4 portions and colour the portions with the three colours of green colouring and the brown colouring. Wipe the 4 colours against the cake with a spatula and pull it nice and tight with a sidescraper (place the cake on the turntable for this). After spreading, let the cake set again in the fridge.

Step 4: Decorate the Dinosaur Cake

Now you get to work with the chocolate drip. Remove the cap and, if applicable, the aluminum seal from the packaging and melt for 15-20 seconds in the microwave at max. 800W. Attach the cap and shake well, repeat this process until the drip is completely melted. Now that the drip is ready for use, slide it along the edge of the cooled cake. TIP: Test on an inverted glass to see if you have the right thickness.

Generously sprinkle hazelnut crunch on top of the cake, put the dinosaurs in place and decorate the cake with the leaves made.
